Personal Bio

I am a free spirit! I like anime, cosplay, and music of all genres. I am a big sister with a big heart. I have a ferret and some may even call me the ferret whisperer. Other activities that I enjoy include playing my trumpet. I have been a part of jazz band, marching band, honor band and traditional school band. Most of friends and family say that I am amazingly confident, fierce and outgoing. I am usually the first to include others and love to make new friends. My current goals are already starting to come true by being able to do what I love, acting. My long term goals are to be able to act in film and commercials and go to Hollywood to continue acting. I would love to be on Disney, Nickelodeon or a Netflix series.
